

Acknowledgments

Explore the World with Shorebirds! was expanded from the regional Arctic-Nesting Shorebirds Teacher's Guide, written by Maureen de Zeeuw, and from Shorebirds of the Pacific, developed at the U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service's Alaska Maritime National Wildlife Refuge office in Homer, Alaska. The Shorebird Sister Schools Program Coordinator, Hilary Chapman, SSSP educator's guide committee, and environmental education specialist Suzanne Trapp completed this Educator's Guide update.

Special thanks to members of the educator's guide committee for volunteering their time and expertise: Lori Haynes, Florida Fish and Wildlife Conservation Commission; Linda Dill, New Jersey Audubon Society; and Maureen de Zeeuw, Tamara Mills, and Suzanne Fellows of the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service. Special thanks to Brad Andres, U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service National Shorebird Coordinator for his time and assistance. Many thanks also to Nancy Whalen for proof-reading the entire guide.

Heart felt appreciation and thanks to Suzanne Trapp who took our innumerable ideas and changes, and made sense out of it!

Great thanks to the following educators who took time out of their busy schedules to review, test, and provide feedback on the revised guide:

Margaret Olsen

Woodward Academy, Jonesboro, Georgia

Susan Raymond

M.Ed., Georgetown Charter School, Millsboro, Delaware

Joe Super

Bishop Ryan High School, Minot, North Dakota

Marilyn Cook

H.G. Olsen Elementary, Port Aransas, Texas

Marcia Bisnett

Miami Norland Senior High, Miami, Florida

Steven Daniel

Department of Education Culture and Employment, Yellowknife, Nunavut, Canada

Dan Butterworth

Crooked River State Park, St. Marys, Georgia

Ashley Dayer

Oregon Coastal National Wildlife Refuge Complex

Bonnie Swarbrick

Buenos Aires National Wildlife Refuge, Arizona

Laura Diprizio

Division of Migratory Birds, U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service, Hadley, Massachusetts

Sue Thomas

Division of Migratory Birds, U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service, Portland, Oregon

Thanks to Project WILD, Alaska Wildlife Curriculum, New Jersey Audubon Society, North American Bluebird Society, Wisconsin Department of Natural Resource, and the many other organizations and agencies that allowed adapted versions of their activities to become part of this curriculum. Illustrations were donated by George C. West and Maureen de Zeeuw.

The Following Project Sponsors Provided Funding:

The U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service:

Division of Migratory Birds and the National Conservation Training Center

The U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service's mission is to work with others to conserve, protect and enhance fish, wildlife, and plants and their habitats for the continuing benefit of the American people. Over 500 refuges and wetland management districts protect fish and wildlife habitat, including areas important to shorebirds.

The National Fish and Wildlife Foundation

By awarding challenge grants, the National Fish and Wildlife Foundation conserves healthy populations of fish, wildlife, and plants — on land and in the sea — through creative and respectful partnerships, sustainable solutions, and better education.

ConocoPhillips Company

For more than a decade, ConocoPhillips has been a partner in bird conservation to benefit birds, their habitats, and the environment. "As a natural resource company, we know the importance of protecting the air, land and water upon which we all depend."

Graphic Design

Kudos and great thanks to Kelly Fike for the layout and design of the guide.

